

Moritz Schumann

Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Head of the GDV's Center of Competence for Retirement Provisions and Financial Security

Career

Moritz Schumann has been Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the German Insurance Association, i.e. the Gesamtverband der Deutschen Versicherungswirtschaft e.V. (GDV), and Head of the Center of Competence for Retirement Provisions and Financial Security since 1 March 2024.

After qualifying for college entrance, Moritz Schumann studied general and business mathematics at TU Kaiserslautern and Chalmers University of Technology in Gothenburg.

Following his studies, Moritz Schumann worked at Allianz Deutschland AG from 2018 to 2021. During this time, he also successfully completed his training as an actuary certified by the German Association of Actuaries (DAV). From 2021 to 2024, he was head of the Fundamentals and Pricing Methods Department at Allianz Lebensversicherungs-AG.